

PRO BONO VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR PFA PLAINTIFFS

BUCKS COUNTY

Pro bono attorneys are needed each Wednesday to represent survivors of domestic violence at Protection from Abuse (PFA) hearings at the Bucks County Justice Center in Doylestown.

By volunteering, you can provide an essential service to the court while providing a positive impact for a survivor of domestic violence.

Feedback from LASP clients about their pro bono attorneys:

- "He was funny, kept hopes high, and did everything that was in the best interest for myself and children."
- "Open and helpful."
- "My attorney ... was awesome! Thank you. [She] was kind and caring."

From a volunteer attorney...

▶ "Pro bono attorneys in PFA Court are essential to providing equal access to justice in Bucks County. On a personal level, serving as pro bono PFA counsel allows me additional opportunities to interact with the Court and with my colleagues while providing an essential service to the community."
